

Master's Degree Program in Emergency-Disaster Preparedness Management

General managers, emergency services first responders, and public officials may all benefit from graduate studies in disaster preparedness and emergency management. The future of disaster preparedness and response lies in educated emergency managers.

CURRICULUM

(all courses are 3 credits each)

Emergency-Disaster Preparedness Concentration

Crisis Management, Disaster Recovery &
Organizational Continuity

NIMS Compliance, Planning & Strategy for Emergency Management

Organizational Risk & Crisis Management in both Public & Private Enterprise

Health Services & IT Issues in Emergency Management for the Non-Medical Emergency Manager

Homeland Security & the Management of Mass Terrorism Preparedness & Response

Core Courses

Human Resource Management & Development

Planning & Project Management

Evaluating Research in Management

Leadership

Budget & Finance

Application of Technology

Graduate Seminar (Multidisciplinary)

Steps to Take...

- Call 607-735-1825 and make an appointment to speak to one of our friendly advisors.
- Check out our website (www.elmira.edu/continuinged)
- Act today...Discover how part-time study can make all the difference in opportunities for life!

Other MS Management Programs at Elmira College:

Health Services Management

General Management

Information Technology Management

Practical | Relevant | In Demand

ELMIRA COLLEGE

Continuing Education and Graduate Studies

607-735-1825 • 800-354-4720 • E-mail: continuinged@elmira.edu; graduate@elmira.edu

www.elmira.edu/continuinged

