

Are you producing a musical? If so, are you prepared?

Mastering the Musical

July 9–27, 2012

A 3-week, all-inclusive, comprehensive program of Musical Theatre Theory and Practice designed for those whose expertise is English, Music, Dance, or Straight Theatre

The study of Movement, Music, Performance, and Staging in a lovely, summer setting, just south of the Finger Lakes

Prior training in vocal music and movement is not required, though all participants will sing and move in both the practical course and the final musical review.

Program consists of two courses:
(six total hours graduate credit*)

1. Musical Theatre: Theory and Development
2. Musical Theatre: Practical Applications with a final performance of a musical review

*Need CEU rather than graduate credit? CEU credit for educators will be available on a space available basis at a reduced rate.

Program includes:

- Single accommodations in our new, air-conditioned Meier Hall
- Three meals a day, Monday through Friday
- Graduate tuition and fees for the two courses
- All required textbooks for both courses
- Two weekend excursions to musical theatre performances (Merry-Go-Round, Glimmerglass, Hangar, Geva theatres, etc.)

Local residents only: Fees are reduced since housing and meals are not available. Weekend excursions are available for an additional fee.

Space is limited.
