

Nate Hart, Sports Information Assistant

Nate Hart joins the Elmira College Athletics Department in his first year as the Sports Information Assistant. Hart, a 2011 graduate of Oswego State, worked in the Sports Information Department at Oswego for three years, while also serving as an intern for one semester.

As a student assistant Hart was responsible for assisting in the transfer of website material to a new content management system, served as a public address announcer, scoreboard operator, and recorded statistics using StatCrew software. During his internship he supervised co-workers in the absence of the Sports Information Director, and wrote all women's soccer and basketball post-game stories for the athletics website. He also designed and created content for men and women's ice hockey and basketball media guides as well as shooting and editing video that complemented website stories.

Hart has also interned with The Palladium Times sports department, a local Oswego newspaper. Work responsibilities included weekly meetings with the sports editor for story assignments, interviewing sources, writing feature and preview articles, and utilizing Press Wire to add sports stories to the newspaper layout.

In his final semester prior to graduation Hart interned at WSYR-News Channel 9 in Syracuse with the sports department. Position responsibilities included logging important scoring plays in relevant sports contests to the Syracuse viewing area, cutting and editing highlights of games for newscasts at 5:00, 5:30, 6:00 and 11:00 p.m., and looking up statistics and important trends of games to feed the sports director for use in live broadcast. During his internship Hart got the chance to interview Syracuse basketball players Kris Joseph, Rick Jackson, Brandon Triche, Scoop Jardine, and C.J. Fair.

Hart has also written sports stories for his school newspaper and conducted live sports broadcasts at the student-run television station. During the winter of 2009 he also served as the JV Boys Assistant Basketball Coach at his high school. During his senior year he was the Membership Director of Lambda Pi Eta, the national communication honor society, as well as the Treasurer for Ed2010, an organization for those interested in the magazine industry.

Hart is pursuing a Master's degree in General Management at Elmira College.
