This course is designed to provide participants with the knowledge and skills to successfully plan, implement and test an IT Disaster Recovery Plan (DRP) as part of their overall business continuity strategy. The material covered will also include recovery time and recovery point objectives (RTO and RPO) while incorporating cyber security strategies.

The course concludes with a practical simulation exercise.

Intended audience: Public, private and non-profit sector; IT personnel and business/government leaders who are responsible for information technology functions.

DATE: Tuesdays, September 23 - November 4

TIME: 6:00 - 9:00 p.m

18 hours instruction including a simulation exercise

COST: $250 plus $50 technology fee

LOCATION: Elmira College/
Gannett-Tripp Library

For more information call today (607) 735-1825

EC at Night...for a better tomorrow!